LARGE CROWD AT BOWIE Brooklyn, N. Y., April 11.—Grover Cleveland Alexander, pitching for the Phillies, was taken for ten hits to all parts of the field in the opening game here today, and had it not been for the long hits and fielding of his teammates, no doubt the home team would have romped in a winner. The score: ENJOY VERY GOOD CARD

Four Out of Seven Favorites Gallop Home Winners.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.

Bowle, Md., April 11.—The largest week-day gathering of the present meeting was on hand today, and those present ther-oughly enjoyed a good afternoon's sport. oughly enjoyed a good aftermoon's sport. The weather was ideal; the track fast, and the card was an exceptionally good one. Favorites had their imning when four out of seven galloped home first. Anxiety, paying a little better than 10 to 1, stood his field on their ears in the fifth number, an affair at six and a half furlongs, easily defeating Little Nephew and Talebearer. The latter was a pronounced favorite. Anxiety was hard urged all the way, and went around his field, and was rushed into a commanding lead which he held until the wire was reached.

win.

The sixth number was easy for Egmont, who was under restraint until straightened out for home when he easily passed High Horse and Lynn.

Boxer accounted for the closing number, making every post a winning one, while Mr. Mack was second and Costumer, third.
